DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-21, 23-82, 84-102 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection, namely a 35 USC § 101 rejection.

With respect to the art rejection for 35 USC § 102 and 35 USC § 103, no new rejection has been made.

Claim Objections

2. Claims 22 and 83 are objected to because of the following informalities:

Claims 22 and 83 have the claim identifier "Cancelled," however the claim text is still presented. Attention is directed to 37 CFR 1.121(c) (4)(i), which states that:

No claim text shall be presented for any claim in the claim listing with the status of "canceled" or "not entered."

Appropriate correction is required.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 21, 23-61, 82 and 84-102 are allowed.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

4. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claims 1-20 and 62-81 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter.

Regarding claims 1 and 62, the subject matter is directed to the manipulation of an abstract idea and does not claim a limitation to a practical application, and consequently is functional descriptive material.

Further regarding claim 62, claim 62 recites "A medium for retaining a computer program...", which is not necessarily a computer-readable-medium in that it could be a program printed on a piece of paper.
